NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

Texas voters will be voting on nine amendments to the state constitution in a special election to be held Tuesday, Aug. 5.

In an effort to acquaint our readers with these amendments we will attempt to give a brief analysis of each of them between now and the time of the election.

The brief titles of the amendments are as follows: 1. Clean-Up Amendment, 2. Increasing Water Development Bonds — $3.5 billion, 3. Authorizing the Legislature to set its own salary and the salaries of the Speaker of the House and the Lieutenant Governor within certain limits, 4. Exempting non-profit water supply corporations from taxation,

5. Increasing ceiling on assistance to four classes of needy to maximum of $80 million from state funds, 6. Removing constitutional interest rate limitations, subject to limits imposed by Legislature for bonds pursuant to constitutional authority, 7. Providing for payment of assistance to surviving spouses and minor children of governmental officers, employees, and agents, including members of organized fire departments and certain organized police reserve units, who have hazardous duties and are killed in the performance of those duties,

8. Authorizing Legislature to provide for additional loans to students at institutions of higher education under Texas Opportunity Plan, 9. Providing for annual sessions of the Legislature.

The first amendment on the ballot is just what the title implies, a clean-up amendment. The amendment would repeal 52 obsolete provisions that no longer actually do anything — good or bad.

These are provisions in the Constitution which, inserted for good reason in 1876, appear now fully to have served their original purposes and have become obsolete or superfluous.

The second amendment to be voted on would increase the Water Development Bonds by an additional $3.5 billion, subject to the approval of a two-thirds majority of the legislature and would broaden the powers of the Water Development Board.

Arguments presented by both sides of this issue are as follows:

For: The future economic growth of Texas is dependent on adequate water resources and the passage of the proposed constitutional amendment is necessary to insure that those resources will be available at the time they are needed. Studies made by the Texas Water Development Board and by the United States Bureau of Reclamation show conclusively that Texas' present economic growth is far outstripping the state's available water resources. The Texas Water Plan offers a means of developing adequate water resources in an orderly, efficient manner over a 50-year period.

Against: The burden to the Texas economy of the bond issue and the construction project envisioned under the Texas Water Plan will be made greater even though all the bonds will not be issued at the same time. Although the Water Development Bonds are revenue bonds that will be amortized ultimately by water users, there will be certain interim costs incurred prior to the time water becomes available to the users, and these costs will probably be levied on a statewide basis. Annual outlays over the 50-year period encompassed by the Texas Water Plan will be substantial.

DEBBIE ELMORE AND DIAL STREAK

Debbie Elmore Wins Sponsors' Saddle At Texas Cowboy Reunion

Debbie Elmore, 15, rode the barrels in 20 seconds in the finals at the Texas Sponsors' Contest at the Texas Cowboy Reunion Saturday night to win the coveted Sponsor's Saddle.

Debbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Elmore, rode Dial

Streak, a stud owned by John and Judy Deatherage of Anson.

Miss Elmore was sponsored in the contest by Hamlin Board of Community Development. The saddle will be on display in the BCD office for two weeks.

Among the 12 finalists were Mrs. Don Elmore and Cheryl Gibson of Granbury, a former Hamlin resident.

Also participating in the finals from Hamlin was T. W. Flenniken in the Double Mugging event. He placed second. Larry Guy of Abilene won the saddle.

Junior Teenage Team to Play Final Home Game

The final home game of the Hamlin Junior Teenage League will be tonight, July 10, at the Pony League Park. They will play the Stamford Rotary team.

Special recognition during the season goes to Gilbert Lujan, who pitched a no-hitter against Stamford. The Hamlin team scored 20 points.

Monday night, Jim Johnson pitched and hit Hamlin past Anson 5-4. He drove in the winning run the bottom half of the last inning.

The team is coached by Buford Bigham.

Only One Box To Be Open Here In Special Vote

Jones County Judge Leon Thurman announced this week that the Commissioner's Court has deemed it advisable to eliminate some of the election boxes for the special Constitutional Amendments election on Aug. 5.

There will be one election box in Anson, Stamford and Hamlin. The other boxes in each of these towns will be combined and be just one voting box.

Also there will not be a voting box in Tuxedo and these people are requested to either go to Stamford or Hamlin to vote. Neinda will not have an election box and these people are requested to go to either Hamlin or Anson.

Other boxes to be closed just for this special election will be the ones at Nugent, Centerline and Hodges.

Five, Six Year Olds Invited to Reading Program Today

All children ages five and six are invited to attend the first reading session at 9 a.m. today (Thursday) at Harden Memorial Library which is being sponsored by the Women's Literary Club.

Mrs. Bob Craig, chairman of the club's public affairs committee, will direct today's session.

Extension Granted On Trash Burning

The City of Hamlin has been granted a 90-day extension of its July 1 deadline for burning trash at the City dump grounds, according to Mayor Hollis W. Madden.

The time extension has been granted by the Texas Air Control Board and will permit the city time to purchase the equipment needed to bury garbage and other wastes.

Because Hamlin is within what is known as the Abilene Metropolitan area, it falls within those towns that were faced with the July 1 deadline on open burning of refuse.

The city is presently advertising for bids on a loader to be used in covering up the trash each day. The bids on this equipment will be opened Monday, July 21.

Mayor Madden said that the city is expecting to spend about $26,000 for equipment to comply with the state regulations and is expecting to spend $1000 to $1200 a month more for operations under the new system. Because of this, the City increased its trash pickup charge $1.00 per month.

The Mayor said that the rumors that all trash burning within the City would be stopped have proved false and that at the present time the public can still burn their trash in the alleys.

Another problem facing the City, the Mayor said, was what to do about those living outside the City Limits that are presently using the city dump grounds. He said the City will likely come up with some sort of permit fee for these people.

Under the state Air Pollution Control Laws the cities must cover their trash with a layer of dirt at the end of each day. At one time it was thought that the same land could be used to bury more trash after a period of three years but is not the case. The land may be used for other purposes but new land must be found for the trash as the pits are filled.

Cardinals Lead Little League All-Star Selection With Six Boys

The Cardinals led the field in the selection of the Hamlin Little League All-Star team with six players. The Giants and the Yankees each placed three and the Braves two. The local All-Stars will play the Merkel All-Stars in Merkel Friday, July 18.

The coaches for the All-Star team will not be decided until two more games have been played to finish out the season. The Yankees play the Braves tonight (Thursday) in a make-up game and the Cardinals and the Cardinals will play over a game Monday night that was played under protest earlier in the season and was won by the Cardinals.

The local title will go either to the Yankees or the Cardinals depending on the outcome of these two games and the coaches of the winning team will coach the All-Stars. The Giants ended the season in third place and the Braves in fourth.

All-Stars from the Cardinals named were: Ricci Haraghty, Hershel Houghton, Tony Ma-berry, Russell May, Jerry Young, and Gary Mays.

Yankees named were: Joey Youngblood, Tommy Perez and Eddie Offield. From the Giants were Ike Vanzant, Rene Gonzales and Johnny Seay. Luke Reynolds and Tracy Rowland were named from the Braves.

Alternates named were Wayne Turner, Giants; Gary Neal, Cardinals; and Gerald Rodgers, Braves.

Local Cheerleaders Rank Excellent At Texas Tech

LUBBOCK — Hamlin and Southland High School cheerleading squads were the two ranked "excellent" in their class in competition at the sixth annual Cheerleaders School on the campus of Texas Tech.

The Hamlin squad includes Donna Hallmark, Debbie Meyner and Cheryl Moffett. The five-day school closed July 3.

Mets to Play for Title Tuesday

The Hamlin Mets, Senior League team, will play their final game of the season here Tuesday evening. The game will be with the Haskell Indians and will decide the championship.

30 Pre-Schoolers Taking Part In Summer Head Start Program

The Head Start program is attempting to successfully prepare 30 children for first grade here this fall. These children from disadvantaged families are attending special classes designed to help them learn to use their hands and adjust socially. They are also learning to be away from home and become more independent.

The local program, conducted June 2-July 25, is a delegate agency under the Taylor County Community Action Program. Jones County has no program of this nature; therefore, since Abilene is the closest organization, the Hamlin Center is operated under their jurisdiction.

Only last week Marvin D. Carlton, Center Director, received confirmation of federal funds for the local program. Application was made for $10,486. The Office of Economic Opportunity approved $8,321 in federal funds, only four dollars short of the $8,325 requested.

The balance of $2,161 is furnished by the local school district in kind. This amount includes rent on the building, (based on floor space used), use of equipment and volunteer workers.

The children eligible to attend Head Start have to meet requirements based on net family income and number of members in the family. Up to 10% of the total number enrolled may be included without meeting the standard requirements. This year, only one child could be included that did not meet the requirements because there were 29 who were eligible.

During the eight weeks, the children are brought together at 8:30 a.m. They are supervised in story time, creative arts, play and crafts until 1:30 p.m.

They are picked up by bus in the morning and are fed a well-balanced meal at noon before being returned to their homes.

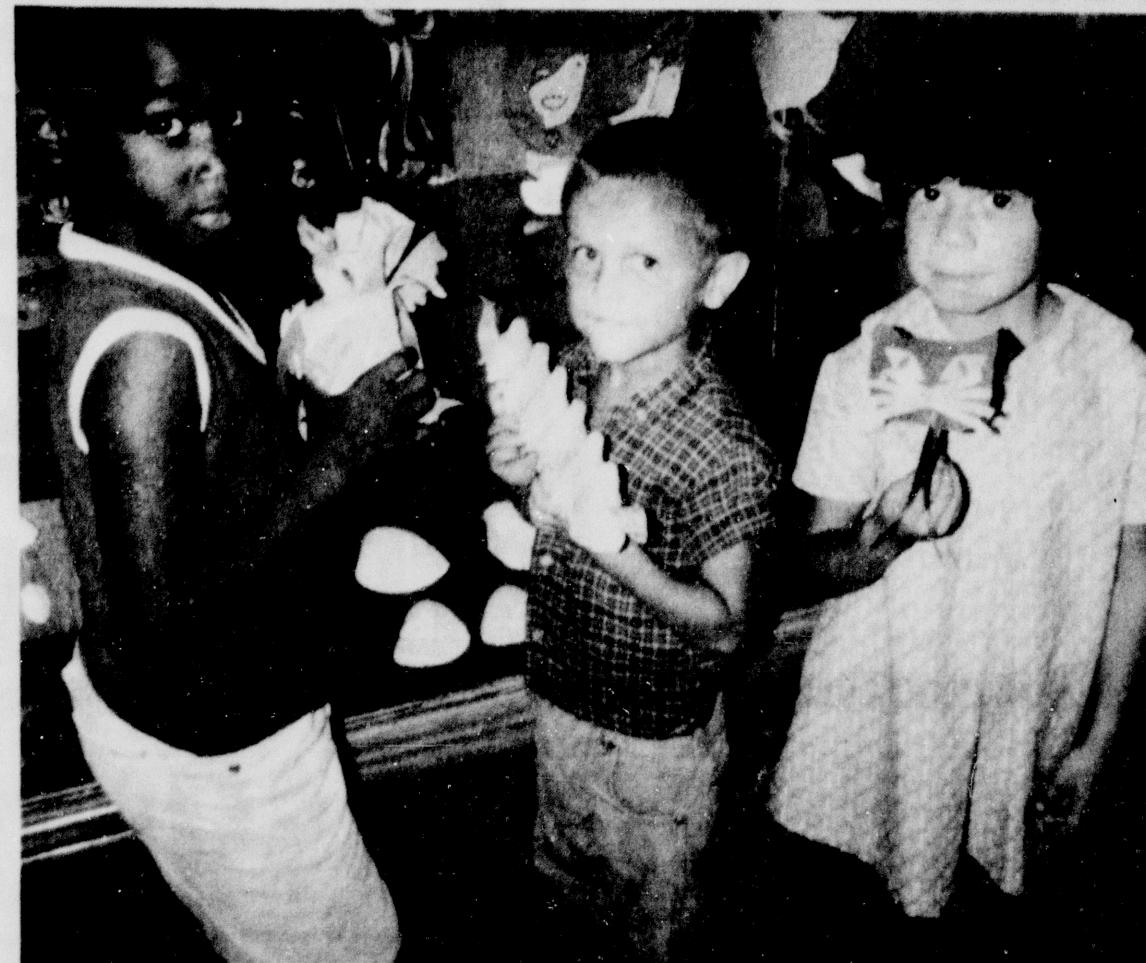

At least one special activity is planned each week, according to Mr. Carlton. They have toured the local riding club arena, have visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Donney to see their rabbits and the home of one of the teachers, Mrs. Joe Norton, to see her ornamental garden and fountain.

One week, rather than taking a trip, Mrs. W. L. Moore brought her Mynah bird to the school. The children were fascinated by the bird's talking and laughing.

Future activities planned for the children are: a picnic in City Park, a trip to the zoo in Abilene, a visit to grocery stores and a ride on the fire truck.

Mr. Carlton, in discussing the benefits of the program, said that progress is made in the eight weeks; but it is really not sufficient time to spend with the children. He feels that President Nixon's idea of

SKIP TO MY LOU — Children attending Head Start learn to play with others while participating in supervised games like "Skip To My Lou" in progress here. Learning to take turns, making new friends and learning to follow instructions are cultivated while games are played. Thirty children are attending classes weekdays in Head Start now in the sixth week of the eight week program.

PLAYGROUND EQUIPMENT — The Merry-Go-Round on the primary school ground is in a nice shaded area for Head Start pupils to play. The playground equipment is an important part of the day's activities as it helps to develop the individual's play habits.

SUMMER HEAD START PROGRAM —

having a nine-month program would be more beneficial.

Vocabulary development is one of the main goals. There are more children this year than ever before that do not speak English, Mr. Carlton said. This handicap is difficult to overcome, he noted. "Thirty words of English are just not enough to equip a child for the first grade."

Parents of the children are invited to visit the Center at any time. Handwork made by the children and pamphlets aimed at aiding low income families are sent home regularly with the children.

Careful attention is given to the child's medical and dental needs. Immunization is provided and parents are encouraged to take their children for physical and dental examinations.

Money is available in the budget to provide medical treatment and dental care for eligible children. Hamlin doctors and dentist take care of the medical and dental needs.

Teachers in the school are Mrs. Norton and Mrs. I. J. Starr. Other salaried workers are teacher's aides, Mrs. David Campos, and Mrs. Trine Contreras; cooks, Mrs. J. L. Warner and Mrs. A. F. Haught; Director of Health Services, Mrs. W. W. Wallace; and the Center Director, Mr.

Carlton.

Volunteer workers include a number of Hamlin High School homemaking students. These girls are under the direction of Mrs. James Simmons and Mrs. Joe Wayne Carter, homemaking teachers, who work out the girls schedules.

Some volunteers are members of Camp Fire groups here.

Helping at various times during the eight weeks are Virginia Collins, Sandra Tyler, Frances Collins, Inez Reece, Shelley Holtz, June Roddy, Ruby Collins, Judy Contreras, Ivie Harper, Marsha Hester, Jimmie Lou Bishop, Jan Young, Cheryl Moffett, Jana Ferguson, Jeannie Ferguson, Tara Colley, Kathy Ponder, Debra Meyner, Wanda Sue Turner, Jan Gardner.

Sally Contreras, Janice Crouch, Crystal Cheshier, Betty St. Clair, Connie Conner, Lorna Stivison, Melissa Madden, Iva Jaye Starr, Elaine Carlton, Karen Jackson, Latrese Williams and Debra Howard.

Farm Bureau Sels Talent Find, Queen's Contest

The Jones County Farm Bureau will sponsor a Queen's Contest and a Talent Find July 25. The contests will be held in the high school auditorium at 9 p.m.

All girls between the ages of 16-22 whose fathers are members of the Farm Bureau and engaged in farming operations are eligible to enter the queen's contest.

Participants in the Talent Find must be between the ages of 17 - 30 as of Dec. 1 and be a Farm Bureau member or a member of a Farm Bureau family and must be amateurs.

The county winner in the talent find will compete in the district contest and the district winner will compete at state and then the winner will go to the National Convention.

Several activities have been planned for the queen's contestants.

Anyone interested in entering these contests should contact the Jones County Farm Bureau, Box 206, Anson, or call 823-3244 by July 14.

Fourth of July guests in the home of Mrs. Tom Routh were a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown, Sarah Lou, Betsy and Bill of Midland. The grandchildren remained with Mrs. Routh to visit until the first part of next week.

Cecil Caldwell of Arlington and Jerry and Mat Caldwell of Lafayette, La., visited in the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hayes of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Don Rose, Joey and Mark of Stamford visited in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hayes.

In the years ahead, you'll be able to preset your telephone to transfer calls to the number where you're visiting.

Electronic switching — using a sophisticated computer system — will make this and many other new services possible.

For example, your phone will have a memory. By dialing just two digits of a frequently called number, you'll activate that memory, then the phone will dial the remaining digits automatically.

Electronic switching is fact, not fiction. It's part of our program to plan today for tomorrow's communications needs.

We may be the only phone company in town, but we try not to act like it.

Neinda Philosopher Finds A Dangerous Bug Under the Chip In the World's Space Program

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One seems agitated about a new aspect of the space program in his letter this week.

Dear editor:
I found an item at the bottom of an inside page in a newspaper out here yesterday that needs the attention of everybody when man's entire program for exploring outer space is examined closely.

According to it, the world's only spacewoman, that Russian housewife named Valentina Tereshkova who orbited the earth a while back, says women should not have to do housework.

"Women," says Val — I'll call her Val to keep from stumbling every time I try to pronounce her name — "should be relieved of dull mechanical types of work like preparing food, cleaning house, doing the laundry, etc."

This throws an entirely new light on the whole space program.

I have been vaguely suspicious all along about the program, not opposed to it, understand, in fact watching every new flight every time my T. V. set was working, but still wondering whether it would finally prove worthwhile, I mean, spending 10 billion dollars to get a soil sample from the moon when we're not even taking care of the soil on earth like we ought to, but if the space program is going to result in freeing women from household chores, that calls for a hard second look. Val's notion is that cooking and doing the laundry and making up the beds and things like that should be taken care of by public service, like garbage collecting and street cleaning are.

And who, I'd like to shout, is doing the garbage collecting and the street cleaning? Men, of course.

In other words, Val sees the space program as a way of forcing men to come home to frozen t.v. dinners after standing in line two hours to pick up their shirts at the government laundry office.

As far as I'm concerned, they can call the whole thing off.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

REST

A day of play has tired this little one, but now sleep will bring about the needed rest. This is the time for restoring energies, and breaks the day's pace. The Lord set aside a day for rest and worship. This day allows us to be in the Lord's house and renews our energies for the week to come.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
